

Henu Community Wellness Court

Kenaitze Indian Tribal Court
and
Kenai Superior Court

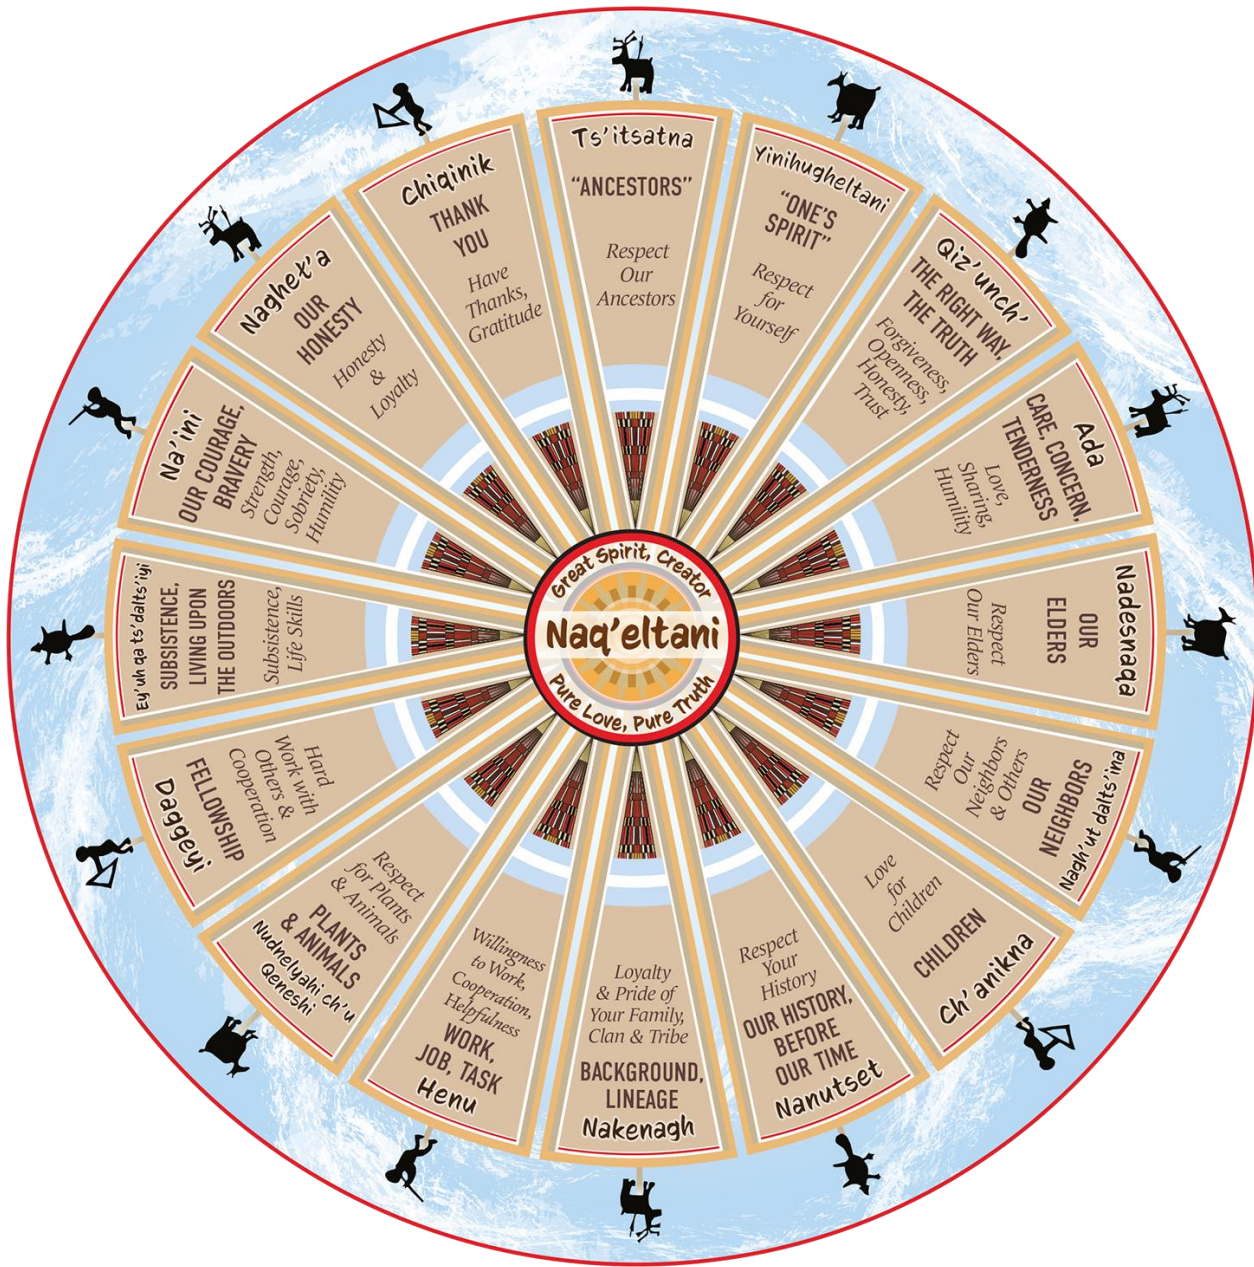

HENU COMMUNITY WELLNESS COURT

- Henu started operations in 2017. It is one of few joint jurisdiction felony drug courts in the United States.
- Henu is the only joint jurisdiction drug court in Alaska.
- There have been 18 Henu graduates since 2018.

TRANSFORMING LIVES
for a
HEALTHIER COMMUNITY

TARGET UN'INA

- Felony charge with a history of substance use
- Felony DUI charge
- Participants cannot be charged with a violent offense (assault), drug distribution, or sex offenses.

HENU COMMUNITY WELLNESS COURT CORE TEAM CONSISTS OF:

Tribal Court Judge

Superior Court Judge

Public Defender
or Assigned
Attorney

Henu Participant

District Attorney

State Probation Officer

Substance Abuse
Treatment Providers

Project
Coordinator

Tribal Probation Officer

HENU

The Court consists of:

- Intensive outpatient substance abuse treatment
- Intensive probation supervision
- Frequent UAs
- Weekly court hearings and core team meetings
- Program lasts 18-24 months

THE FOUR PHASES OF HENU

Phase 1
Trust Phase
Naghel'a

Phase 2
Belonging Phase
Daggeyi

Phase 3
Living Well Phase
Visha Yaghelisht'a

Phase 4
Restorative Phase
Yaghelich'

PHASE 1

- Show up and be honest
- Group 5x week
- MRT (Moral Reconation Therapy)
- AA/NA or approved group 3x week
- Weekly Court
- 45 days continuous sobriety to phase up

PHASE 2

- Submit Job Applications/Education
- Bi-weekly Court Hearings
- UA's 3x week
- AA/NA 3x week
- 60 days continuous sobriety

PHASE 3

- Curfew 12 midnight – 6 a.m.
- Monthly Court Hearings
- UA's 2x week
- AA/NA 2x week
- 90 days continuous sobriety

PHASE 4

- Monthly Court Hearings
- UA's 2x week
- AA/NA 2x week
- 150 days continuous sobriety

GRADUATION CRITERIA

- Complete graduation questionnaire
- Submit a Petition for Graduation
- Have a safety/relapse prevention plan
- Ongoing safe sober housing
- Work, school or service hours
- Restorative Justice Project
- 150 days of continued sobriety

Ts'itq'u Circle

Coming Together as One

CHIQUINIK (Thank You)

Kenaitze Indian Tribe
Tribal Court
P.O. Box 988
Kenai, Alaska 99611
(907) 335-7219
Chief Tribal Judge Evelyn Dolchok
EDolchok@Kenaitze.org

